“WE ARE THE 99% SUNDAY”
AT FIRST AME CHURCH OF LOS ANGELES
With Special Guest Speakers from the Occupy Movement

Los Angeles, California — Officials of the 19,500 Member First AME Church of Los Angeles, announced today that the church is hosting, "We are the 99% Sunday" on January 29, 2012, at all of our Worship Services, which will include special guest speakers, special music, liturgical dance and a video presentation. Congregants will receive we are the 99% signs.

Pastor John J. Hunter is leading the coordination of the Occupy the Dream movement here in Los Angeles and has joined with leaders from across the country, who draw a comparison between the struggle of the "99 percent" and the civil rights movement.

First African Methodist Episcopal Church, Los Angeles is the oldest church founded by African Americans in the City of Angels. In 1872 Mrs. Biddy Mason (a former slave) received the vision from God to establish a church that would minister to the mind, body and soul of all who would join that small band of believers. That vision and small band of believers has grown to what is now a congregation of more than 19,000 members and several dozen ministries within 13 corporations that bless and reach tens of thousands of seekers in greater metropolitan Los Angeles.
